Directed and produced by Darcy Wittenburg and Jaime Houssian (55 min)

The Collective is a group of filmmakers, photographers, and mountain bikers who have united to produce a new breed of mountain bike film. By drawing on the experience, expertise, and creative energy of all its members, The Collective is a film that portrays the newest cutting-edge images of the freeride progression while exploring the thoughts and personalities of the riders leading that progression.

The Collective's mission is to tap into the soul of mountain biking and to present it on 16mm film. This DVD enters the inner world of the riders who are actively paving the way for the future of the sport.
